

The Nacogdoches Quilters' Guild will present its Blueberry Festival of Quilts Show on Friday June 11, 2010 from 10-6 and Saturday, June 12, 2010 from 9-4 at the Fredonia Hill Baptist Church, 1711 South Street, approximately 1.5 miles south of downtown Nacogdoches. This show is held every two years in conjunction with the Nacogdoches Blueberry Festival.

The judged show will include many beautiful quilts and quilted items, a merchant mall with approximately 10 vendors and a country store. Prize ribbons will be awarded in several categories, including a "Blue and White" category in honor of the Blueberry Festival.

Visit our website, mail@nacquilters.org to view quilts from the 2008 Blueberry Festival of Quilts show.

A beautiful quilt, made by several members of the Guild, will be raffled during the next few months and the winner will be chosen at the close of the show. Proceeds from this raffle will benefit local charities to be chosen by Guild members.

The Nacogdoches Quilters' Guild is composed of 65 quilters from across the area. Meetings are held on the second Monday of each month at 6:30 pm at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. New members and visitors are always welcome.
