

20th Annual

Texas Blueberry Festival

Saturday, June 13, 2009 in Nacogdoches, Texas

Sign up for the Bob Murphey Storytelling Contest!

Presented by Brookshire Brothers

Sponsored by Regions Bank and Citizens 1st Bank

Location: Region's Bank Community Room, 11 am – 2 pm.

Anyone who knew Bob Murphey would tell you that he was first and foremost a “storyteller” who spun colorful yarns about his beloved East Texas and East Texans.

Now is your chance to honor Bob’s genre and also become a new legend with the “Bob Murphey Storytelling Contest” as part of the Texas Blueberry Festival. There will be two divisions, Children and Adults, with prizes awarded to winners each classification. Storytellers can either “re-tell” a Bob Murphey story or come up with an original of their own. You may return this form to the Nacogdoches County Chamber of Commerce or simply complete and bring it with you on the day of the contest.

A good time will be had by all!

Name _____

Division: Children Adult

Phone _____ Email _____

I will tell a Bob Murphey story

Title: _____

I will tell an original story

Title (Title not required) _____

Prizes will include: free one-year membership, ($30 value) to East Texas Historical Association - which includes two editions of the East Texas Historical Journal.

The book Notable East Texans will be given to each participant.

You may return to: Nacogdoches County Chamber 2516 North Street

info@nactx.com